Hey Ed,

Please see the MT103 below and a copy of my communication with the Brex team. This is information you can share with your bank to allow them to track the location of the funds. I've followed up with the Brex team and they are still waiting to hear back.

Please let me know what their response is to this. We want to make sure to resolve the issue as quickly as possible for you.

Best,
Emory

Message Below:

This is Natasha from Brex Support. Thank you for your chat!

I have contacted the respective team to have them investigate the wire further.

In the meantime while I wait for an update, I am going to provide you with an MT103. This is used for tracking purposes and can be given to the beneficiary so that their bank can track the wire.
