ANDREA DE VIDO

We hereby inform you that our client C&O SOCIAL LAUNDRY SL has commissioned us to file a legal claim (through a demand for summary judgment) for the outstanding debt owed to him in the amount of 553,27 € together with the claim costs and any late payment interest incurred.

Since this debt has been repeatedly claimed from you without result, we have drafted the appropriate claim (which will be attached to the official email completing the certification) and we inform you that we will proceed to present it to the competent Court unless you proceed to pay the debt by means of a deposit or assignment of debt 553,27 € to the account ES1201825629540201504583 indicating, when doing so, the concept Expedient 7596 and immediately send us the proof of payment to our email expedientes@redclaimer.es.

Otherwise, if 24 hours have passed without us having received proof of full and effective payment, we will file a claim with the Court of your domicile, with the consequent increase in the debt with expenses, interest and costs .

Finally, we must also inform you that the non-payment will also be communicated to Experian Business Bureau for inclusion in the bad debt file managed by this company, which we will formally and reliably notify you of via this means for the appropriate purposes.

Trusting that these actions will not be taken, we await confirmation of payment.

Signed, Antonio R. Texidó
